

Brandon Slone is a Military Historian in Military Records and Research Branch, Kentucky Department of Military Affairs. He has BA and MA from Eastern University and has worked at St. Lucie County (FL) Historical Museum, Petersburg (VA) National Battlefield, Graduate Assistant and Special Collections and Archives, EKU and at White Hall State Shrine.

Program

Saturday 10 April 2010

No food or drinks in the vendor's area at any time

9:30-10:00 Registration and browsing of vendors tables

10:00-11:00 Researching Your War of 1812 Ancestors History & Genealogy with Emphasis on Kentucky Resources by Brandon Slone (Part 1)

11:00-11:30 Vendor browsing and lunch

11:30-12:30 Researching Your War of 1812 Ancestors History & Genealogy with Emphasis on Kentucky Resources (Part 2)

12:30-4:00 Vendor browsing

.....

Pre-Registration Form for Workshops at ATHS Book Fair

Name(s)_____ Nos. Attending_____

Address:_____ Email Address:_____

Amount enclosed_____ ($10 per session, per person)

Please mail form and workshop fee ASAP to Rosa O'Bryant, 307 Diecks Drive, Elizabethtown, Ky. 42701.

Or email your intentions to her at squirt@windstream.net. This will help us to plan for handouts.

Emailed intentions will be honored, payment accepted at the door.

ATHS will hold its annual Book Fair and Workshop on Sat., Apr. 10, 2009 from 9:30 am to 4 pm EST at the Pritchard Community Center at 404 S. Mulberry St. (Hwy. 62) in Elizabethtown, Ky. For more information contact Rosa O'Bryant at 270-765-4305 or email squirt@windstream.net